

ENTERPRIZE

CARRIAGE CONDITIONS

Thank you for your interest in sailing Enterprize. As the replica of Melbourne's 1835 founding ship Enterprize closely replicates that original schooner whilst strictly operating to 21st century maritime law and practices. You should expect at the very least a moving deck beneath your feet and challenges to your personal comfort. This is all part of the 1830's experience Enterprize offers. Please be sure you are aware of the physical demands a voyage may require and confirm if necessary that you are physically capable. After a brief introduction to the ship and her safety features we will invite you to get involved in operations of the vessel – to the extent you wish to. If you have any doubt of your physical ability to undertake the voyage you are urged to consult your medical professional for advice. We can provide your medical consultant guidelines about the shipboard conditions you may experience aboard. Please be sure of this before you sign this document. We also encourage you to ensure adequate personal medical coverage for the voyage. Although Enterprize sails to best maritime practice and law, personal injuries can happen.

- Due to medical and dietary information the 'Confirmation of Booking' is not transferable. In this case no refund will be given by Enterprize Ship Trust (Enterprize). Where a cancellation occurs due to circumstances preventing the Enterprize departing, an alternative date for the booked trip or a refund will be arranged. If you cancel the booking or fail to arrive at the time and place of departure, no refund will be given.
- Enterprize reserves the right to cancel or vary without notice the voyage, departure and arrival times, routes, vessels and or places and accepts no responsibility for any loss or inconvenience caused.

We have the right to reject your booking or your embarkation, at any time, on the grounds of medical unsuitability for the voyage and the Ship's Master shall follow any course of action he deems necessary.
- For voyages overnight and longer, you undertake to Enterprize that you have disclosed all known current medical conditions and dietary requirements on the Booking Form that will be emailed to you, and you acknowledge this information will be relied upon, and held in confidence, by Enterprize.
- You acknowledge that as a passenger you will be subject to the directions and orders of the Ship's Master throughout the entire period of the voyage.
